How To Use This Bible Reading Plan -

There are three reading assignments for each week of the year (one week's reading is displayed on each row).

This plan was created for middle school aged students and will not include all the chapters of the Bible in one year. It is a "getting started" Bible reading plan & is a great way to get middle schoolers into the Word without seeming overwhelming. A manageable number of chapters are assigned each week & books from both the Old & New Testaments are included.

I encourage students to take their time and enjoy their time in the Word each day - this slower pace allows for more understanding as they read by eliminating the sense of being rushed by a huge amount of daily reading.

Thank you for utilizing this Bible reading plan & please check out resources by Lindsay Burt on Teachers Pay Teachers.
